CONTRIBUTIONS FROM SYSTEMIC FUNCTIONAL LINGUISTICS TO MULTILITERACIES STUDIES

October 26-30, 2015

Universidade Federal de Santa Maria
Centro Universitário Franciscano
Santa Maria, RS, Brazil

The Post-Graduation Program in Applied Linguistics at the Federal University at Santa Maria (UFSM) and the Liberal Arts Department at the Franciscan University Center (UNIFRA) are pleased to announce the call for papers for the XI CONFERENCE OF THE LATIN-AMERICAN SYSTEMIC FUNCTIONAL LINGUISTICS ASSOCIATION, that will take place in Santa Maria, Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, from October 26th to 30th, 2015. Presenters will hold discussions on the CONTRIBUTIONS FROM SYSTEMIC FUNCTIONAL LINGUISTICS TO MULTILITERACIES STUDIES.

The XI ALSFAL Conference will include:

- pre-conference courses: October 26-27, 2015
- plenaries, round-tables, paper presentations and book launching: October 28-30, 2015.

PAPER PRESENTATION

The XI ALSFAL Conference will welcome papers that have Systemic Functional Linguistics (SFL) as its central reference as well as papers that establish a dialogue between SFL and other theoretical frameworks/areas. Papers to be presented can have a variety of approaches, more theoretical or more applied orientations, with different corpora, participants and contexts. Presentations should focus either on theoretical or applied research data and results about interactions between SFL and multiliteracies, situated in four different contexts:

1. Contributions from SFL to knowledge production in educational contexts;
2. Contributions from SFL to knowledge production in professional contexts;
3. Contributions from SFL to knowledge production in media contexts;
4. Contributions from SFL to knowledge production in other contexts.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

To submit an abstract, please make sure to include:

- title, name of author(s), e-mail address;
- contextualization, objective(s), theoretical-methodological framework, results (partial or final), discussion and references (if necessary);
- between 3 and 5 keywords, separated by commas;
- minimum of 200 and maximum of 300 words, without references.

The abstract can be submitted in just ONE of the three official languages of the conference: Portuguese, English or Spanish.

Abstracts should be included in the electronic form available at the conference site at www.ufsm.br/lincs/alsfal.

Presenters can be authors in one paper and co-author in two more, totaling three participations. In order to receive the printed material and certificate, participants must fill out the form and pay for registration.

Deadline for complete papers will be announced on the event site in May 2015.
